F O R E W O R D

Here it is—the 1943 SEQUELLE. We hope you will like it. It has been said that one picture is ‘‘better than a thousand words.’’ We have tried to use more pictures this year to depict to you the story of the activities and life at Clarion State Teachers College. We hope that this SEQUELLE will be a reminder of Clarion which you will always want to keep.

DEDICATION . . .

HIGH FLIGHT

“Oh, I have slipped the surly bonds of earth
And danced the skies on laughter-silvered wings
Sunward I’ve climbed and joined the tumbling mirth
Of sun-split clouds—and done a hundred things
You have not dreamed of—wheeled and soared and swung
High in the sunlit silence. Hov’ring there
I’ve chased the shouting wind along and flung
My eager craft through footless halls of air.
Up, up the long delirious, burning blue
I’ve topped the wind-swept heights with easy grace
Where never lark, or even eagle flew.
And, while with silent, lifting mind I’ve trod
The high untrespassed sanctity of space,
Put out my hand, and touched the face of God.”

—Written by JOHN GILLESPIE MAGEE, JR., before he was killed in action with the Royal Canadian Air Force in December.

A collage of 14 black and white photographs of students from the Class of 1941. The photos are arranged in a grid-like fashion, with some larger and some smaller. The students are shown in various poses and settings, including portraits, group shots, and candid moments. The attire is formal, typical of the early 1940s. The photos are: 1. Top left: Two students in dark clothing, one standing and one sitting on a low wall. 2. Top center: A student in overalls standing with hands on hips. 3. Top right: Two students in suits, one standing and one sitting. 4. Middle left: A student in a suit walking across a field. 5. Middle center: A student in a suit standing in front of a tree. 6. Middle right: A student in a suit standing next to a student in a light-colored dress. 7. Bottom left: A student in a suit walking down a set of stairs. 8. Bottom center: A student in a suit standing next to a student in a light-colored dress. 9. Bottom right: A student in a suit standing next to a student in a light-colored dress.

OUR PRESIDENT

PAUL G. CHANDLER

We have lived and worked together for four years; four years that stand out in the minds of college graduates as years in which lifelong friendships are formed, happy associations enjoyed, and hard work performed. I shall follow with personal interest, each of you wherever you go, and hope to keep in touch with you through such means as the alumni files, class reunions, alumni days, and visits to your schools and communities. Please call on me for help in securing jobs and promotions, and occasionally just write me a letter.

STUDENT SENATE

PURPOSE

The Student Senate endeavors to promote student responsibility, increase student-faculty cooperation, and enrich college life. It is the aim of the Student Senate to serve the students which it represents in the most efficient way possible, to provide them with the highest caliber of educational programs, and to maintain the high standards of college life which Clarion State Teachers College established long ago.

DUTIES

They have to make ends meet. Budgeting of the Student Cooperative Fund gives them many headaches.

PERSONNEL

This governing body representative of the student body is composed of twelve members elected by the students.

WOMEN'S STUDENT COUNCIL

DUTIES AND PERSONNEL

The Women's Student Council of Becht Hall discuss and attempt to solve the inevitable problems which arise in a girls' dormitory. This organization is made up of two girls from each class, the house president, and the dean of women.

SOCIALS

Throughout the school year several events were sponsored by the Council. In the fall the girls had a house party with games and refreshments. The annual Christmas tea was another highlight in this group's activities. Monthly birthday parties and other house parties added to the enjoyment of the girls.

SEQUELLE STAFF

WORRY! WORRY! FAMILIAR QUOTATIONS

"Will you write the A.C.E. page?" "That picture will have to be taken over." "When's that photographer coming again?" "These 'write-ups' have to be in by 4:00 Friday." "You get some snaps of the game to-night." "Miss Nair says she must have that page to look over right away." "How's this for a close-up?" "Mr. Kuhner, how much would a page like this cost?"

WE LIKED IT

Making this "Sequelle" for you has meant the expenditure of energy, worry and, yes—fun. Not one person would have missed the experience of doing his bit to help make it a success.

PRESS CLUB

PURPOSES

The main project of the Press Club is the publication of the Clarion Call. Through writing and discussion the members of the club have gained a knowledge of journalism which will be helpful to prospective teachers.

WAR WORK

Much credit is due the Press Club for its part in the war effort. With the help of Mr. Manson and Mr. Smith of the Publicity Department we have created a correspondence system for the alumni of Clarion who are now in service. A card catalogue has been placed in the library, containing the names and addresses of C.S.T.C. alumni or former students. Copies of the Call are sent men whose addresses have been recorded.

OUTDOOR CLUB

NEW MEMBERS

The Outdoor Club proved to be one of the most active clubs on the campus this year. Early in the year four new members were elected to fill vacancies in the club roll. They were: Connie Kanski, Lois Stroupe, Eugene Stinard, and Richard Helmtoller. At mid-semester ten new members were elected to the club roster. They were: William Kraye, Donald Shaffer, Charles Green, John Graff, Edward Black, Nell Matter, Geraldine Ledebur, Margaret Zuendel, Doris Casky, and Kathryn Cope-land.

ACTIVITY

The first social affair of the club was a gala party held in their club room in Science Hall. B G-R (before gas-rationing) the club held their annual outing at Cook's Forest and the party proved to be one of the most successful in years.

GEOGRAPHY CLUB

TRAVELING

The Geography Club visited a strip-mining project at Strattonville, Pennsylvania, after which they enjoyed a picnic lunch.

CLUB PERIODS

The programs consisted of travelogues, given by the members, and motion pictures of Mexico and South America. A lively spirit of rivalry was maintained within the club by a contest in which points were awarded on attendance, the winning of games and contests. The losing group entertained the club in January.

ACTIVITIES

This able group made relief maps. They observed and recorded weather conditions at the newly erected weather station.

PI GAMMA MU

ORGANIZATION

In January the members of this national honorary fraternity drew up a program for the rest of the year and selected those students who were eligible for membership.

INITIATION

In February the fraternity held initiation at which time Marian Shick, Jean Williams, Paul McKinley, Joseph Jewart, and John Tile became members.

ACTIVITIES

The club discussed the organization of a Junior Historical Society, a new project which the club hopes to work out for use in high schools and colleges.

INTERNATIONAL RELATIONS CLUB

INFORMATIVE

International Relations Club meets every second Tuesday for many heated discussions of world events. A major unit was a discussion of the United Nations, divided into five meeting periods.

ACTIVITIES

Another major project was the chapel program in which the members discussed "Partnership for Peace."

YOUNG MEN'S CHRISTIAN ASSOCIATION

OBJECTIVES

To lead students to faith in God through Jesus Christ, to lead them into fellowship and service in the Christian Church, to promote their growth in Christian faith and in Christian character, especially through the study of the Bible and prayer, to influence them to devote themselves in united effort with all Christians, to make the will of Christ effective in human society, and to extend the kingdom of God throughout the world.

ACTIVITY

The Association has been privileged to hear several speakers, and also has held joint meetings with the "Y.W." Other activities included the study of great Biblical characters and discussions vital to young people of today.

GUIDANCE

The success of this organization has been due to the constant interest and attendance of the members and the splendid cooperation and advice of our adviser, Mr. Becker.

YOUNG WOMEN'S CHRISTIAN ASSOCIATION

HELPING THE FROSH

The Y.W.C.A. introduced Big and Little Sisters on the campus last year and the idea was carried out again this fall.

SOCIAL ACTIVITIES

These activities included a spooky Halloween party, a Valentine party, and similar enjoyable times.

PROGRAM

Many of the faculty members contributed to the Y.W.C.A. meetings by speaking to the group in fields of their special interests. Miss Marwick talked on "Religion and Drama." Dr. Cordier addressed the club on "Building for Peace, Today and Tomorrow," and Dr. Pierce, on "Religion and Science."

ART CLUB

VICTORY CARDS

The Art Club painted Christmas Cards and donated them to the D.A.R. for "buddy bags" which were sent to the boys in camp. More cards were put on sale in the College book store. The designs of these block-printed cards were inspired by campus scenes. Many such cards reached service men, for whom they were primarily made.

SOCIALS

The Christmas holidays prompted a delightful Christmas party. The St. Patrick's Day party, given jointly with the Press Club, provided additional entertainment.

CONTEST

The subjects for the posters in the annual art contest were the Brookville Hospital and Correct Usages of the Flag.

COLLEGE PLAYERS

PLEDGE

Every College Player believes that "All the world's a stage, and all the men and women merely players." Each member of the College Players is performing his assigned role to the best of his ability as he works for the success of the club.

ACTIVITIES

During 1942-43 the high standards of the College Players have been consistently maintained. The chapel program, "The Man Who Married a Dumb Wife," was a complete success. The dramatic production given late in the spring was equally successful. At the regular meetings interesting and educational projects were presented. These included one-act plays, skits, demonstrations of various phases of play production, and discussion of techniques. One of the important and enjoyable social events of the year was the annual Christmas banquet.

GIRLS' CHORUS AND A CAPPELLA

PROGRESS

Even with the gasoline shortage and the shortage of male voices, the choir succeeded in developing its repertoire. The concert tours were curtailed but the choir kept in tune singing in and around Clarion and at school functions.

FUN TOO

Shortly after semesters the A Cappella Choir had a dinner at the Coffee Shoppe and then went out to the Harvey Gymnasium for games and a good time.

DOUBLE DUTY

The women of the Choir have done double duty this year, for they have also sung in the Girls' Chorus. This organization made several public appearances throughout the year.

MEN'S QUARTET

SPECIALTIES

The Men's Quartet specialized this year in spirituals, close harmony, and novelty numbers. These boys were a popular organization on the campus and in the surrounding community.

THEY ENTERTAIN

Although the call to service disrupted the program of the Quartet they succeeded in entertaining at several social gatherings some of which were the Masonic Banquet at New Bethlehem, the Women's Club in Clarion, and the East Brady High School.

GIRLS' ENSEMBLE

SINGERS ALL!

The programs given by the Girls' Ensemble had variety. They sang patriotic, religious, and humorous songs as the occasion demanded.

PERSONNEL

The Ensemble contains several soloists. From this group has also emerged the College Trio—Kay Cervone, Marian Shockey, and Ruth Kapp.

HOSTESS CLUB

ETIQUETTE-MINDED

The meetings of the Hostess Club have been devoted largely to the discussion of etiquette problems. These young women learned rules about formal and informal dinners, writing and answering invitations, and etiquette in general.

ACTIVITIES

The members are artistic, too. They prepared a window display for Book Week. Several parties were enjoyed during the year and the girls were enabled to practice what they had learned.

ASSOCIATION FOR CHILDHOOD EDUCATION

FALL—'42

Jean Watson was elected president for the year. Eleven new members were welcomed into the club at a hamburg fry held in Wilson's Woods. The Clarion branch was chosen by Eloise M. Metz, president of the Pennsylvania Association, to start a Round Robin letter winging on its way to all other branches in Pennsylvania. We were complimented on the bulletin which we put out in the spring of '42. Early in the fall a former member, Miss Bonnie Davis, spoke to the club.

WINTER—'42-'43

Attorney Harris talked to the club on "Juvenile Delinquency." On January 7th the A.C.E. gave a chapel program.

SPRING

The organization concluded a successful year with a party held in the club room.

CLASSICAL CLUB

PURPOSES

The activities of the Classical Club supplement those of the Latin classes. Its members have been particularly interested in the enriched teaching of Latin through the study of Roman history and Roman life.

CLASSICAL ENTERTAINMENT

One of the projects for the year was a chapel program consisting of a Roman style show, and pictures of Roman life.

PHI SIGMA PI

MEMBERSHIP

Phi Sigma Pi is a national honorary educational fraternity, admittance to which is governed by superior scholarship standing plus a professional interest in education.

ACTIVITIES

The year's activities consisted of the formal initiation, writing of letters to service men, and business and professional meetings. Many of the meetings were in the form of lively discussions of current problems. Mr. Becker, the sponsor, entertained the fraternity at his home with refreshments adding to the enjoyment of the group. The annual Founder's Day banquet served as a social highlight.

The Pan-Hellenic Council is the governing body of the sororities on the campus. Two representatives from each sorority make up this group.

AIMS

The Pan-Hellenic Council tends to bring the two national and three local sororities together in peace and harmony.

ACTIVITIES

The annual tea for non-sorority girls was held in the lounge of Becht Hall early in the fall. The Pan-Hellenic banquet was not held this year but a party took the place of this event.

DELTA SIGMA EPSILON

GETTING AROUND WITH DELTA SIGMA EPSILON

In August two delegates from the local chapter, Alpha Zeta, attended Conclave, a national convention, at Denver, Colorado. The delegates, Jean Dressler and Phyllis Timlin, represented one of the thirty-three chapters of this sorority in the United States.

RUSHING

Way back in the nineties went the Delta Sigs for their rush party. First a banquet, then a "Gay Nineties Review." Nose-gays and programs cut in the shape of old fashioned ladies were given to the rushees. Gevienne Smith, Margaret Zunden, Elizabeth Griffeth, Margaret Moore, Jean Donaldson, and Joan Davis were the new pledges.

LAMBDA CHI DELTA

ORGANIZATION

Since its organization in 1931 the Lambda Chi Delta Sorority has held a prominent place on the campus.

ACTIVITY

The patronesses started the year off right for the Lambda Chi's by giving a dinner party for them at the home of Mrs. Harry Manson. A week-end invasion of Cook's Forest by these girls proved very enjoyable. The rushees became acquainted with the patronesses at a St. Valentine's Party given by the adviser, Mrs. C. R. Flack. The active members of the Lambda Chi's entertained their patronesses in the spring.

RUSHING

The Lambda Chi's went juvenile. The rush party was a "Kid Party" with lollipops and short dresses. Betty George, Martha Reed, Betty Kifer and Geraldine Ledebur were pledged and later initiated.

SIGMA DELTA PHI

SUMMER WITH THE SIGMA DELTA PHI'S

The first meeting in the fall found the Sigma Delt's given to reminiscences. Happy experiences—summer camp at Cook's Forest—good times.

PROJECTS

A dash of blue with gold fringe—a popular sight on the campus—scarfs for the head attractively made by the girls themselves. Not only did they brighten up themselves but they gave much time to decorating their room and keeping a scrap book.

PATRIOTIC LASSES

Depriving themselves of social times to help the Red Cross sew.

RUSHING

The scene of the action was in the Eastern Star rooms—an induction party with patriotic colors and a tasty home-cooked dinner. Of the rushees Betty Hilliard, Maxine Mong, Helen Schultz and Bonnie Sibley were pledged and initiated.

RUSHING

Rushes of Alpha Pi chapter of Sigma Sigma Sigma kept pace with the times by attending the Sigma Canteen where food and fun were the order of the day. Those pledged to the sorority after the rush party were: Kathryn Black, Mary Burns, Vera Gray, Ruth Hanel, and Peggy Rimer. SOCIAL FUNCTIONS

The Theta Alpha Lambda's first social function was an initiation party for Miss Weismantel, their new adviser. A theater party followed. Spooks, laughs, and food at Mrs. Hoyt's Halloween party given for the girls in the sorority.

THINKING OF OTHERS

At Thanksgiving time the Theta's selected a needy family for which they prepared a basket. Nor did they forget this family at Christmas time. Clothes and toys were made and repaired by the girls for these needy people.

RUSHING

A dinner at the Coffee Shoppe and a theater party were the activities of the evening. Ada Altemus, Ella Edwards, and Ann Mocek were pledged and initiated into the sorority.

ALPHA GAMMA PHI

THAT OLD SPIRIT

Clarion's oldest fraternity, Alpha Gamma Phi, carried on with zest and spirit though the call to service has depleted their list of active members.

"THE BEST IN RECENT YEARS"

So was the rush party proclaimed by faculty advisers and alumni members. In Davis Hall the guests were entertained by games, movies and humorous speeches. Sixteen pledges were secured, namely: Charles Green, John Chuldenko, Don Ludwig, Warren Crissman, Don Hulse, Edward Black, Wilfred Zachrel, James Davidson, Ken Paine, Robert McManigle, John Kerr, Jim Kerr, Robert Zelechowski, William Krayner, Frank Molinaro and Don Shaffer.

ACTIVITIES

A Christmas party was held in Mr. Hart's apartment with gifts and food. The inter-fraternity social and the fraternity banquet kept the boys well entertained.

A GOOD START

An overnight trip to Cook's Forest in October—this outing also served as an informal initiation for the former members of Zeta Eta Phi. Those initiated were John Hunter, Paul McKinley, Joseph Jewart, William Allison, William Smathers, Eugene Stinard and Harry Wolfe.

RUSHING

For a one night stand the Alpha Phi Alpha fraternity became members of a rollicking show in Harvey Gymnasium alias "Cafe Alpha Phi Alpha" complete with master of ceremonies, orchestra and chorus girls. James Russell, Robert Stahlman, Alex Zubritsky, James Ray, Joseph Ventrella, Eugene Brady, Elmer Saraco, Gomer Edwards, Jack Stack, Blaine Stover and John Graff were pledged and later initiated, formally and informally.

GOLDEN EAGLES

TIPPINMEN

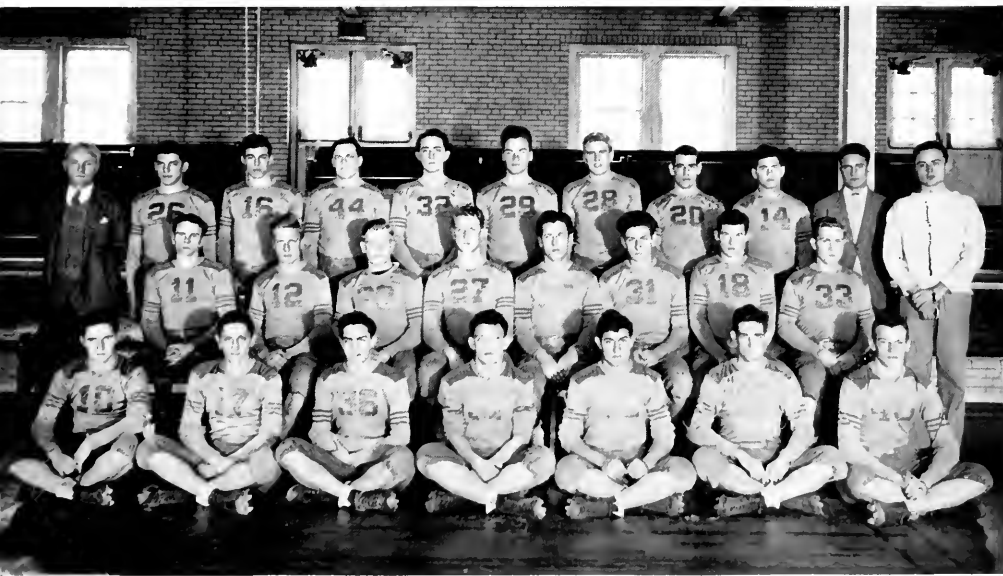

The Golden Eagles opened the season with several veteran players present and a fine crop of freshmen who had ability but lacked experience. William Solonchak was the captain for the year.

WAR EMERGENCY SCHEDULE

The Edinboro game was the first of the season for the Golden Eagles. It was a stubborn game with the Golden Eagles scoring early in the first period. A disputed "sleeper play" after Edinboro had gained two points made the final score favor Edinboro eight to six. Experience and strength gave Indiana an overwhelming victory of twenty-five to nothing. An enjoyable cross-state trip was climaxed by a victory over the Kutztown gridmen, twenty to six. Grove City can be more than pleased with their twelve to two victory. Clarion's fighting spirit was great but the "Growers" scored twice within the last five minutes of the game.

OUR VETERAN PLAYERS

The team and the student body missed many of our veterans who have gone off to play the "big game" for Uncle Sam. The American football game today is giving to the services of America competitively trained men that will make the best fighting men in the world.

SEASON SUMMARY

The Clarion Cagers ended the war time schedule with a fine record of six wins and two losses. Coach Waldo S. Tippin's men opened the season with three lettermen: James Siar, Charles Shaner and Dick Helmintoller. The freshmen: Jack Stack, Jim Kerr, Bill Krayner, John Graff, Frank Molinaro, and Jim McKinley rounded out a hard fighting, high scoring team.

Averaging better than a point a minute the Golden Eagles defeated Grove City and California twice before being beaten by Indiana. Wins over Fenn and Alliance followed even though injuries were numerous. The second defeat at the hands of Indiana came about only after a bitterly contested game. Clarion ended the season in fine style with an easy win over Alliance.

SCOOPS OF 1953

Paul McKinley, replacing John Powers, names Betty Hartle as cover girl of the year—Anna Marie Verderose will receive the Academy award for her brilliant performance in William Smather's Pulitzer Prize winning drama—Merle Wolcott recently named editor of "Esquire" promises more and better cartoons during the coming year—Jean Tait has won the distinction of "The Woman of the Year"—and Dorothy Hillgartner, as America's outstanding woman columnist—Lawrence Snitzer, the new Jerry Colona on the Bob Hope show and Joyce Erickson, better known to the public as Vera Vague, will appear as guest artists at Harry Wolfe's "Eight O'Clock Club" on opening night—Ruth Kapp, celebrated blues singer, will thrill cafe society with her haunting refrains—and Harry Etzel will be on hand as master of ceremonies—the glamour for this gala event will be furnished by the movie queen, Charlotte Logue—Speaking of queens, the U. S. Navy has announced that Jean O'Neill has been elected to reign o'er the Navy—Jean has long been a true navy girl—Jane Vail will star as Blondie in Eugene Stinard's production of "The Bumsteads"—and Dale Rhodes is slated as the new Professor on the "Professor Quiz" program—also on the air—Adele Behringer giving helpful household hints and morning exercises—Forest Carlson receives the Nobel Prize for his outstanding lectures—the Newbery Medal goes to none other than Ada Altamus, the beloved writer of children's books—Ella Edwards has been voted the most popular humorist of the year—and Mary Katherine Beabes has been elected president of the American Library Association—notes of interest in the literary world—Betty Brenan announces publication date of her treatise on "How to Play Solitaire in Ten Easy Lessons"—also new on the book list, the cook book, edited by Jean Dressler and entitled, "The Ways and Means of the Marriage Racket"—and that delightful collection of poetry, "Secrets of the Stacks," by Jean Kerr—Paul Kapp has dedicated his model T to the Smithsonian Institute—Bill Solonchak, steel magnate, donated funds for a new football stadium at Clarion—James Buzard's football team slated to play Coach Wesley Freeburg's team at the Rose Bowl—Margaret De Santis, newly appointed ambassador to France—the first woman to achieve this honor—remember when we used to call her Peggy?—Robert Stroupe, president of International Airlines, will present Maxine McAnulty, ace pilot, with a pair of gold wings as a token for her many contributions in the field of aviation—Olympic honors this year go to Mary Ogorchock, the second Eleanor Holm Jarret—and to Nancy Porter, the accomplished figure skater—Rita Jane Kluck walked away with the Women's Tennis Championship—that girl has a wicked backhand as her opponents soon discovered—At the recent dedication of the Helen Hummell Art Institute were Betty Myers, leading psychiatrist, Helen Handy, the renowned mathematician who solves Einstein's "unsolvable" problems—Ruth Rimer, celebrated child psychologist—and Magdalen Moeck, foremost American educator—Fay Henry, art editor for "Mademoiselle," which, by the way, is edited by Jean Watson, was doing her journalistic duty—Those smart hair-do's worn by Mlle.'s models are styled by Marian Williams—Music notes—"Downbeat" proclaims Lucy Anne Beyer's all girl orchestra as the most popular band of the year—Elaine McCall as the outstanding composer and Bonnie Shankle as 1953's favorite soprano—Betty Siar, concert violinist will appear at Carnegie Hall in the very near future—One of the ten best dressed women of the year—Mary Hamilton viewed with her old school chum Mildred Baker, founder of the nation's model kindergarten—Dorothy Brocius, famous equestrian, arrived today from a world wide tour———.

CIVILIAN PILOT TRAINING

The C.P.T. program was instituted in 1939 under C.A.A. supervision by authority of the Department of Commerce as an extra-curricular program in colleges and selected private flying schools.

Definite efforts were inaugurated to secure a quota for full time operation of a C.P.T. program at Clarion State Teachers College July 1, 1942. Original plans materialized and on September 21, the first program, which is under army supervision, got under way. The graduation of the first class of C.P.T. service pilots occurred on November 18th.

Ground school instructors included Mr. Manson and Mr. Tippin. Dr. Peirce teaches physics and air craft identification and Mr. Kuhner, meteorology and navigation. Civil Air regulations and code are taught by Dr. Cordier. Mr. Carey teaches mathematics and navigation.

Acknowledgments

The Staff of this year's SEQUELLE wishes to thank all those people who have in any way helped in the production of the book.

The engraving was done by Jahn and Ollier Engraving Company, represented by Mr. Louis E. Wise.

Merin-Baliban Studios, with Mr. H. L. Johnson as representative, did the individual and group photographs. Ben Smith contributed the photos in the men's sport section.

The printing was done by the Stevenson-Foster Company. Mr. H. B. Weaver was the representative for the printers.

The cover was designed and manufactured by Kovercraft.

To the Advertisers

The editor and staff wish to thank all the advertisers for their interest and cooperation in producing the 1943 SEQUELLE.

OUR BEST WISHES to every graduate and student of Clarion State Teachers College. Please keep us in mind—write us when you secure a position or a better one: when you are married: or receive distinctive recognition.
We are glad to print good news about Clarion students.
